

GURDJIEFF.COM – PRIVACY NOTICE

Your Personal Data:

What we need

The website www.gurdjieff.com is part of The Gurdjieff Society (a charity registered in England and Wales - Reg. No. 207480). The Gurdjieff Society will be what is known as the 'Controller' of the personal data you provide to us. For the purposes of responding to your enquiry from our website we only collect and store your name and email address. If, subsequently, you wish to arrange a meeting with us, we may additionally collect your telephone number(s).

Why we need it

We need to know your basic personal data in order to respond to the enquiry you made to us via our website. We will not collect any personal data from you except what we need in order to provide and oversee this service to you.

What we do with it

All the personal data we process is handled by our staff and our volunteers in the UK. We do not share your data with anyone else and no third parties have access to your personal data unless the law allows them to do so. We will not use data supplied in connection with your enquiry to our website for any purpose except to respond to your enquiry.

We have a Data Protection regime in place to oversee the effective and secure processing of your personal data. More information on this is available from us on request.

How long we keep it

The data you provide to us will only be kept for as long as you pursue your enquiry. You can ask us to remove your details from our records at any time via the email address on our website. Your data will be deleted as soon as we process your request, which will usually be within one month.

What are your rights?

If at any point you believe that the information we hold about you is incorrect, you can ask to see this information and to have it corrected or deleted. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact us and we will investigate the matter.

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe that our processing of your personal data is not in accordance with the law, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).
